

Guest Protocol for Public Comment at Colorado Interagency Coordinating Council Quarterly Meetings

The Colorado Interagency Coordinating Council (CICC) welcomes guest to the quarterly meetings. As our guest, please review the following protocol and enjoy your visit with the Council.

Guests:

1. Please sign in with name, address, and affiliation.
2. Help yourself to the handouts at the front of the room.
3. Fill out a name tent.
4. Take a seat at the table.
5. When “Introductions” take place, please let the Council know you are here as a guest.
6. Please participate by listening to all discussions.
7. When there are opportunities for open discussion, you are invited to join in the conversation as appropriate.
8. If you have specific comments as an individual you want to share with the CICC, please notify EI Colorado that you would like to make a formal “Public Comment” and be prepared to make your comments during the specified time.
9. Please let EI Colorado or one of the CICC-co-chairs know if there are ways we can help you make the most of your visit with the CICC.
